

The Merchant.

Who does not advertise may know what he is doing, but no one else knows. An ad in The Herald would inform everybody.

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR

AN ARMY OF TRAMPS EN ROUTE

Working West in the Path of the Christian Endeavor Tourists.

FULLY FIVE THOUSAND ARE COMING

Have Settled Down Upon the Country Like a Cloud of Locusts.

Infest Freight Trains to Such an Extent That the Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific Have Found It Necessary to Arm Their Men With Double-Barreled Shotguns—While Following the Route of the Transcontinental Lines, They Branch Off into the Country Towns Contiguous—Some Say They Are Bound for Debs' Promised Utopia in Washington, Others That They Expect Work in the West.

(Special to The Herald.) Denver, June 28.—Kansas is full of tramps. There is an army of 15,000 moving to Colorado, and the west. They are working west in the path of the Christian Endeavor tourists, said James Wright of Topeka, Kan., at the Windsor today.

He is concerned with several of the western roads in the capacity of express messenger.

"Fully 15,000 are following each of the four large railroad lines, through Kansas and have settled down in the country like locusts. The movement to the Pacific coast started ten days ago from Kansas City and the west."

"They infest the freight trains to such an extent that on the Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific guards with double-barreled shotguns, patrolled them on top."

"One tramp, named Kari, was killed last week at Salina, Kan. A brakeman on the Union Pacific, known as Calhoun, killed him. He fell on the track and was mangled. The brakeman has been arrested."

"The tramps, in following the general route of the transcontinental lines, branch off into the country, and after working it thoroughly for old clothes, money and meals, again hit a freight train."

"The tramps come from all over the east and southeast. They state they are all endeavoring to secure work in the irrigated valleys of the mountain states or in mining camps; others, as a last straw, are making tracks to join Debs' promised Utopia in Washington, but the great body is going to San Francisco, and there they will alight."

VIRTUALLY DISMISSED.

Retirement of Baron Marshall Von Bismarck.

Berlin, June 28.—As the health of Baron Marshall Von Bismarck, minister of foreign affairs, is in no way improved, his retirement from the foreign office which comes from Kiel today, is regarded as a virtual dismissal. The Kaiser is expected to return here during the latter part of August. Until then the affairs of the foreign office will be handled by Baron Von Bismarck, under secretary of state. The theory is that this dismissal is a move to enable Baron Von Bismarck to accompany the Emperor and Prince Heinrich to St. Petersburg, after which Prince Heinrich will resign and Baron Von Bismarck succeed him.

Baron Von Kuleren-Wachtel, once German minister at Copenhagen, will be appointed foreign secretary. Baron von Kuleren-Wachtel is highly esteemed by the Emperor, but the appointments will certainly involve a great deal of criticism because, though of the first rank in diplomacy, they are quite without precedence in parliamentary life.

Although not officially announced, it is said tonight that Dr. Von Boettcher, minister of the interior, has actually resigned and will be succeeded by Count von Bismarck, the present secretary of treasury.

Dr. Miquels' chance appears to be temporarily closed.

General Potocki will shortly be gazetted as postmaster general. This, as well as the visit he has recently paid to Prince Bismarck, is looked upon as confirming the report of the Emperor's resignation of Prince Heinrich, who has already strenuously opposed placing such officers as the post department in the hands of men of military training.

GHOST DANCERS.

Three Hundred Banquets Having a Great Time.

Bole, Ida, June 28.—Governor Stevenson is advised that 300 Indians, mostly Shoshone, with some from the Lemhi agency and some from Nevada, are about starting on the Snake trail, near Bitter Lake, Idaho. The settlers are greatly alarmed over their action and have appealed to have them removed. The Indians have asked the Bureau agent at Ross Fork asking that the Indians be removed. He has wired to the same effect to the interior department.

Reed Will Be Ready.

Washington, June 28.—Speaker Reed said today that he had the matter of the appointment of committees under consideration, and unless something now unforeseen should occur to change his personal inclination he would prepare the list and submit them prior to the final adjournment of the House.

Jews Persecuted in Teheran.

London, June 28.—The Daily Chronicle published this morning, under reserve, a letter from Teheran, the cap-

OHIO DEMOCRATS WILL MEET TODAY

McLean, it Appears, Has a Walk-over.

EVEN GOLDBUGS ARE IN HIS FAVOR

SEVERAL CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR IN THE FIELD.

Robert T. Hough Said to be the Favorite, But the Field is Making a Hard Fight on Him—Free Silver Enters Largely into the Struggle—Anti-Convention Contests Are Very Animated—Today Will Probably Decide.

Columbus, O., June 28.—The candidates and delegates are here in force today for the Democratic state convention, which meets tomorrow and Wednesday. The delegates meet by congressional districts tomorrow afternoon, and the convention proper does not assemble till Wednesday morning.

John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has secured such a large majority of delegates that there is no more opposition to him for senator than there was to Senator Hanna at the Republican state convention last week.

McLean's friends do not want any serious contest in the selection of the platform in the form of a resolution. They are simply clearing the right of way. No Democrats have held state primaries, and the field is wide open and a new class of aspirants is in the field. There are dozens of candidates for each place on the state ticket, and the delegates are all here today and their headquarters open.

Nominations will be made for governor, lieutenant governor, auditor, treasurer, judge and member of the board of public works.

Among the candidates for governor are Robert T. Hough, Paul J. Seng, John C. Wells, D. D. Donovan, R. A. Smalley, J. M. Van Meter, S. M. Hunter, C. Patrick, Horace L. Chapman, W. Thurman, John A. Lewis, C. F. Noble, John F. Winn, E. B. Finley, C. C. Layton, F. M. Marriott, John G. McLean, and others.

Hough is the favorite, but the field is making a hard fight on him. His friends claim that he is such a strong silver man that he will be able to carry the state. His opponents say he is a weakling and will be unable to carry the state.

Volcano Mayn Does Damage.

Manila, June 28.—The volcano Mayn has been in a state of violent eruption since Monday. It has caused considerable damage in the province of Albay, particularly to the village of Iba, where the tobacco crop has been completely destroyed. There has been considerable loss of life.

Pettigrew Continues to Improve.

Washington, June 28.—The condition of Senator Pettigrew, who was taken ill in the Senate yesterday, continues to improve. His condition is such that he will be able to resume his senatorial duties in a few days.

BRIEF TALES BY WIRE.

Emperor William gave a dinner on Sunday night to the guests of honor at the Windsor Hotel. The Emperor was accompanied by the Empress and the Crown Prince.

Yesterday's statement of the condition of the Emperor's health was such that he will be able to resume his senatorial duties in a few days.

Reputation papers have been forwarded to Chicago for the arrest of R. J. Ruffalo, the actor, indicted for assaulting his wife.

Unless the condition of public business improves, President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley will leave for a visit to Canton. They will remain until Monday.

A dispatch from Bern says the Federal council has refused to ratify the commercial treaty with Japan owing to the prohibitive restrictions on Japanese goods and watches.

The well known sailing schooner Agnes McLean, which was wrecked off the coast of the Victoria delta, was wrecked off the coast of Japan yesterday. All the crew and passengers were saved.

A fresh attempt on the part of the Sultan to secure Germany's support for the restoration of the Ottoman Empire in the Balkans, was refused by the German government.

The employees of the Elgin Iron Works, who were on strike, have returned to work. The strike was caused by a dispute over wages.

John Brown, indicted for murdering William McKinley, an Italian, at Hampton, Va., last night, was taken to the court house yesterday, where trial was held. The jury was composed of twelve men.

In anticipation of the passage of the tariff bill in the Senate this week, Mr. McKinley has appointed a committee of the House to investigate the tariff on iron and steel.

Major Good, S. J. Elliot and S. L. Nelson, who were on the Springfield, Ill., train, were taken to the hospital yesterday. They were injured in a collision with a freight train.

The directors of the Chicago Telephone Company have decided to increase the dividend on the common stock from 5 per cent to 6 per cent.

The Journal and Advertiser says: Archbishop Keane, former rector of the Catholic University of Washington, is said to return to the United States. It is said that he is to be appointed archbishop of New Orleans.

Charles Gibson, Indian territory, was found by Special Agent Wisdom of the interior department, Saturday, at the residence of the Cherokee freedmen, which resulted in one of the

OHIO DEMOCRATS WILL MEET TODAY

McLean, it Appears, Has a Walk-over.

EVEN GOLDBUGS ARE IN HIS FAVOR

SEVERAL CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR IN THE FIELD.

Robert T. Hough Said to be the Favorite, But the Field is Making a Hard Fight on Him—Free Silver Enters Largely into the Struggle—Anti-Convention Contests Are Very Animated—Today Will Probably Decide.

Columbus, O., June 28.—The candidates and delegates are here in force today for the Democratic state convention, which meets tomorrow and Wednesday. The delegates meet by congressional districts tomorrow afternoon, and the convention proper does not assemble till Wednesday morning.

John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has secured such a large majority of delegates that there is no more opposition to him for senator than there was to Senator Hanna at the Republican state convention last week.

McLean's friends do not want any serious contest in the selection of the platform in the form of a resolution. They are simply clearing the right of way. No Democrats have held state primaries, and the field is wide open and a new class of aspirants is in the field. There are dozens of candidates for each place on the state ticket, and the delegates are all here today and their headquarters open.

Nominations will be made for governor, lieutenant governor, auditor, treasurer, judge and member of the board of public works.

Among the candidates for governor are Robert T. Hough, Paul J. Seng, John C. Wells, D. D. Donovan, R. A. Smalley, J. M. Van Meter, S. M. Hunter, C. Patrick, Horace L. Chapman, W. Thurman, John A. Lewis, C. F. Noble, John F. Winn, E. B. Finley, C. C. Layton, F. M. Marriott, John G. McLean, and others.

Hough is the favorite, but the field is making a hard fight on him. His friends claim that he is such a strong silver man that he will be able to carry the state. His opponents say he is a weakling and will be unable to carry the state.

Volcano Mayn Does Damage.

Manila, June 28.—The volcano Mayn has been in a state of violent eruption since Monday. It has caused considerable damage in the province of Albay, particularly to the village of Iba, where the tobacco crop has been completely destroyed. There has been considerable loss of life.

Pettigrew Continues to Improve.

Washington, June 28.—The condition of Senator Pettigrew, who was taken ill in the Senate yesterday, continues to improve. His condition is such that he will be able to resume his senatorial duties in a few days.

BRIEF TALES BY WIRE.

Emperor William gave a dinner on Sunday night to the guests of honor at the Windsor Hotel. The Emperor was accompanied by the Empress and the Crown Prince.

Yesterday's statement of the condition of the Emperor's health was such that he will be able to resume his senatorial duties in a few days.

Reputation papers have been forwarded to Chicago for the arrest of R. J. Ruffalo, the actor, indicted for assaulting his wife.

Unless the condition of public business improves, President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley will leave for a visit to Canton. They will remain until Monday.

A dispatch from Bern says the Federal council has refused to ratify the commercial treaty with Japan owing to the prohibitive restrictions on Japanese goods and watches.

The well known sailing schooner Agnes McLean, which was wrecked off the coast of the Victoria delta, was wrecked off the coast of Japan yesterday. All the crew and passengers were saved.

A fresh attempt on the part of the Sultan to secure Germany's support for the restoration of the Ottoman Empire in the Balkans, was refused by the German government.

The employees of the Elgin Iron Works, who were on strike, have returned to work. The strike was caused by a dispute over wages.

John Brown, indicted for murdering William McKinley, an Italian, at Hampton, Va., last night, was taken to the court house yesterday, where trial was held. The jury was composed of twelve men.

In anticipation of the passage of the tariff bill in the Senate this week, Mr. McKinley has appointed a committee of the House to investigate the tariff on iron and steel.

Major Good, S. J. Elliot and S. L. Nelson, who were on the Springfield, Ill., train, were taken to the hospital yesterday. They were injured in a collision with a freight train.

The directors of the Chicago Telephone Company have decided to increase the dividend on the common stock from 5 per cent to 6 per cent.

The Journal and Advertiser says: Archbishop Keane, former rector of the Catholic University of Washington, is said to return to the United States. It is said that he is to be appointed archbishop of New Orleans.

Charles Gibson, Indian territory, was found by Special Agent Wisdom of the interior department, Saturday, at the residence of the Cherokee freedmen, which resulted in one of the

QUEEN GOES TO KENSINGTON

Sees Her Birthplace for Probably the Last Time.

SADNESS AND PLEASURE MIXED

GREETED WITH GREAT JOY BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

It is Said That Victoria Believes That She Has Now Done All She Should, and Will Hereafter Let Some of the Burdens of Responsibility Fall on Those Who Must Bear It When She Passes Away—Return to London.

London, June 28.—The queen returned to London this afternoon, and made what most probably was her last public appearance in the metropolis, for, with the celebration of the queen's jubilee on Thursday next, the state appearance of her majesty, it is said on her official authority, will be finished henceforth for whatever span of life may be left to her. Queen Victoria will continue herself to such work for the state as can be done at Windsor.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

Her majesty will, however, attend to the duties of her office, and will, as usual, be the object of a scene never surpassed in material splendor and moral significance since the British empire was created. For the occasion she will wear her own ever-present coronation robes, and will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Devonshire.

SETTLED SEVERAL VEXED QUESTIONS

Senate Committee Has a Very Important Meeting.

LEAD ORE WILL NOT BE CHANGED

FIG IRON WILL BE ADVANCED 2 1/2 CENTS PER POUND.

Substitute Written for the Paragraph Relating to Gloves, Also for the Leather Paragraph, in Which Many Changes of Importance Are Made—That Paragraph Goes Over for Future Consideration.

Washington, June 28.—The senate committee on finance today settled several vexed questions in connection with the tariff.

It was decided to leave the rate of 15 cents on lead ore as first by the tariff committee, and also to leave from as originally determined by the committee and passed by the house.

The rate on pig lead to 25 cents per pound. This is an increase of one-half a cent over the house rate, which the committee did not originally discuss, and was made as a concession to the manufacturers of lead.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

SETTLED SEVERAL VEXED QUESTIONS

Senate Committee Has a Very Important Meeting.

LEAD ORE WILL NOT BE CHANGED

FIG IRON WILL BE ADVANCED 2 1/2 CENTS PER POUND.

Substitute Written for the Paragraph Relating to Gloves, Also for the Leather Paragraph, in Which Many Changes of Importance Are Made—That Paragraph Goes Over for Future Consideration.

Washington, June 28.—The senate committee on finance today settled several vexed questions in connection with the tariff.

It was decided to leave the rate of 15 cents on lead ore as first by the tariff committee, and also to leave from as originally determined by the committee and passed by the house.

The rate on pig lead to 25 cents per pound. This is an increase of one-half a cent over the house rate, which the committee did not originally discuss, and was made as a concession to the manufacturers of lead.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.

The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration. The rate on pig iron was again passed over for future consideration.